May 11, 2025 – Fourth Sunday of Easter

Focus: Can we hear Christ's voice speaking to us today?

Can we hear Christ's voice speaking to us today? Or are we like those who, recognizing God's intention to gather the whole world into his fold, were filled with jealousy and deaf to the Good News? We may have moments where we can hear, and moments where distractions deafen us to our shepherd's voice. Let us pray for new hearts and open ears to follow Christ.

Readings May 18

First Reading: Acts 14.21b-27

Second Reading: Revelation 21.1-5a

Gospel: John 13.1, 31-33a, 34-35

As we read these passages we ask ourselves, "What is the Good News here for me?" "What is the challenge here for me" and, "How will this help me celebrate at the table of the Lord this Sunday?" This will enrich our celebration at Mass each week.

FORMED: As we enter the month of May, Holy Mother Church turns her gaze with special love and devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This month, traditionally dedicated to Our Lady, reflects the beauty of spring—new life, hope, and the blossoming of grace—all of which find their perfect fulfillment in Mary, the Mother of God.

We invite you to reflect on the mystery of God's grace, who chose the humble Virgin to bear his Son and cooperate uniquely in the work of our redemption. The Augustine Institute offers faithful resources to help deepen your love for Our Lady and draw closer to Christ through her maternal care. Check out the selection today! Sign up for free:
