May 4, 2025 – Third Sunday of Easter

Focus: We must obey God rather than men.

In order to move forward, we need to look back. We need to remember to be ready for what is to come. In the Mass we are reminded of how Jesus offered himself for us; how he cares for and nourishes us; and how he guides us. With this remembrance, we can move forward in love to follow and serve him.

Readings May 11

First Reading: Acts 13.14, 43-52

Second Reading: Revelation 7.9, 14b-17

Gospel: John 10.27-30

As we read these passages we ask ourselves, "What is the Good News here for me?" "What is the challenge here for me" and, "How will this help me celebrate at the table of the Lord this Sunday?" This will enrich our celebration at Mass each week.

Catholic Women's League News:

May is traditionally dedicated to honoring Mary, Mother of God, in the Catholic Church. This tradition stems from the 13th century and is linked to the celebration of spring and new life, reflecting Mary's role as the mother of Jesus. Throughout May, Catholics engage in various devotions and practices to honor Mary, including praying the Rosary, attending May Crowning ceremonies and making a Marian Shrine.
